

Job Title:	Event Services – Waste Operative
Summary:	We provide waste management services for various events nationwide. This means locations and job roles will vary depending on the event and contract. Most events involve evening and weekend work and some may require overnight stays. Transport and accommodation is provided.
Reports to:	Event Supervisor	Last updated:	January 2017

Duties include but are not limited to:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Litter picking and waste removal in event arena and behind scene areas- Empty full wheelie bins, replace liners and move waste to waste compound- Clean customer refreshment and toilet facilities- Sort general waste from recyclable materials.- To carry out general cleaning duties as required, including sweeping, mopping and cleaning surfaces- To effectively and proactively communicate with other members of your team- To proactively look to improve processes and promote change to reduce waste- To positively represent the company at all times, being polite and helpful to others- To assist in other reasonable duties as required by the company- Working unsociable hours including very early mornings, weekends and overtime where required by the Company

Skills:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Keen approach with a positive can do attitude- Good concentration and work focus- Flexible and adaptable approach to tasks- Professional, polite and courteous manner- Good coordination skills- Health & Safety awareness of yourself and others

Qualifications:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Training Provided

Desirable or beneficial to the role but not essential:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Previous experience in a similar role or industry is beneficial, but full training will be given- The role may include lifting and manoeuvring heavy loads- The role is within a busy and demanding environment